

Members to Members Advantage Program Policy

The Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce strives to offer meaningful and exclusive discounts, products and services to its members. The program is designed to increase the value of Chamber Membership, making the association a more attractive investment and to encourage member to member business.

The Board of Directors has adopted the following policy for those groups wishing to access our members, and / or advantages of their products or services:

- ❖ The vendor must be a member of the Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce & must be in good standing throughout the agreement.
- ❖ The vendor will not be granted an exclusive or restricted contract for their product or service, allowing a free enterprise system to operate with our members setting the demand.
- ❖ The proposal must be a real and obvious advantage exclusive to Chamber Members.
- ❖ The vendor must submit to the Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce a contract outlining the information and/or advantage for which they are seeking to be added to the Members to Members Advantage Package and the materials to be disseminated. The Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce reserves the right to accept or reject any offer.
- ❖ Any cost associated with administering the program: that of promotional materials (brochures, flyers, ads, etc.) will be the responsibility of the vendor. These materials will be made available to Chamber staff for membership packets by the vendor. The Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce will publish your discounts, products and services on the website.
- ❖ The advantage must be consistent with mission of the Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce.

Member to Members Advantage Contract

I understand that in order to participate in the Member to Member Advantage Program we must be and remain a Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce Member in good standing.

If at any time I do not wish to continue offering this advantage, or would like to change my advantage offered, I will notify the Chamber in writing.

The Member to Member Advantage Program is a complimentary service offered exclusively to Lowell Area Chamber of Commerce Members.

Your company's name, address, and discount offered will be published on the Chamber Chambers website and in the Chamber building.
